

Albert Keyack

Albert Keyack is the EPO Attaché to the United States. He previously served as the United States (USPTO) Attaché to Latin America, based in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Mr. Keyack began his career in at a patent law firm in Philadelphia where his practice included both patent prosecution and litigation. He has also practiced in general practice law firms and served as in house counsel for both large companies and start-ups. He has counselled clients in all types of matters involving patents across a broad array of technologies as well as in a variety of transactional matters, including mergers and acquisitions, financings and patent licensing. Mr. Keyack earned a degree in Mechanical Engineering from Villanova University and a law degree from the Rutgers University School of Law. He resides in Washington, DC.