

Charlie C. Lyu, Associate, BakerHostetler LLP

Charlie Lyu focuses his practice on intellectual property litigation and trademark and copyright prosecution. Charlie routinely handles patent, trademark, copyright and indemnity disputes, and has represented companies both large and small in federal court and U.S. International Trade Commission litigations. He also routinely counsels clients on domestic and international trademark procurement, clearance and registration. Charlie's experience in all aspects of intellectual property law gives him a unique perspective on analyzing a company's intellectual property needs.